CRF50F

A hands-down great choice for youth riders, the CRF®50F is built to last. If your kids are ready to ride, this is their bike.

CRF50F There's probably no bike on the trails that can match the Honda CRF50F's track record. Riders have been enjoying these great little bikes for generations, and the quality never disappoints. Designed to build confidence while your youth rider builds his or her skills. This entry-level machine boasts a low 21.6-inch seat height, small ten-inch wheels, and an easy-to-use semi-automatic transmission; no clutch-lever means no stalling and no frustration. The four-stroke engine's powerband is perfect for first-timers, and a keyed ignition lets you control who goes riding.
